Ducommun Incorporated FTP Sites are to be used only under the following conditions:

1. The purpose of Ducommun’s FTP sites is to support our customers, suppliers and employees data transmission needs. Transmission of any material in violation of any U.S. or state regulation, treaty, code or law is prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to, copyrighted material, threatening or obscene material, or unauthorized material protected by trade secret. Use for product advertisement or political lobbying is also prohibited. Use for commercial activities not related to Ducommun Incorporated is prohibited.
2. Ducommun Incorporated and its subsidiaries make no warranties of any kind, whether expressed or implied, for the service they are providing. Ducommun Incorporated will not be responsible for any damages suffered. This includes loss of data resulting from delays, non-deliveries, mis-deliveries or service interruptions caused by negligence, errors or omissions.
3. Security on any computer system is a high priority, especially when the system involves multiple users. Sharing of your Ducommun FTP credentials with anyone is prohibited.
4. Vandalism will result in cancellation of privileges. Vandalism is defined as any malicious attempt to harm or destroy hardware, data of another user or any agencies or other networks that have access to Ducommun Incorporated’s FTP sites. This includes, but is not limited to, the uploading of computer viruses and / or malware.
5. Exception of Terms and Conditions – All terms and conditions as stated in this document are applicable to Ducommun Incorporated and its subsidiaries. These terms and conditions reflect the entire agreement of the parties and supersede all prior oral or written agreements and understandings of the parties. These terms and conditions shall be governed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of California and the United States of America.
6. Disclosure of classified and / or unclassified technical data or hardware to foreign persons is considered an export under the International Traffic in Arms (ITAR) or the Export Administration Regulations (EAR), and requires a Department of State Export License, Technical Assistance Agreement or other authorization, or Department of Commerce License before the export can be authorized.
7. Technical data is defined in the ITAR as “(1) Information, other than software as defined in § 120.10(a)(4), which is required for the design, development, production, manufacture, assembly, operation, repair, testing, maintenance or modification of defense articles. This includes information in the form of blueprints, drawings, photographs, plans, instructions and documentation. (2) Classified information relating to defense articles and defense services on the U.S. Munitions List and 600-series items controlled by the Commerce Control List; (3) Information covered by an invention secrecy order; or (4) Software as defined in § 121.8(f) of this subchapter directly related to defense articles.” Under the EAR, technical data “[M]ay take forms such as blueprints, plans, diagrams, models, formulae, tables, engineering designs and specifications, manuals and instructions written or recorded on other media or devices such as disk, tape or read-only memories.”
